

CALL FOR PAPERS

Deadline: May 3rd 2024

A new event that provides valuable insights and solutions for a more sustainable nonwovens industry

EDANA sustainability FORUM | Nonwovens for Society

5 – 7 NOVEMBER 2024

KBR ROYAL LIBRARY OF
BELGIUM | BRUSSELS

For the second edition of the EDANA Sustainability Forum, we are developing a rich programme, featuring sessions addressing stakeholders' expectations, the circular economy, measuring sustainability performance, green claims and sustainability reporting.

We welcome presentations on all relevant sustainability topics for the nonwovens industry:

- Medical nonwoven circularity
- Good practice on green claims
- Sustainability reporting (CSRD)
- Corporate sustainability (CSDDD)
- Circularity in durable nonwoven applications

Please send your abstract
to giovanna.merola@edana.org by May 3rd, 2024.
It should include a suggested title, 3-4 bullet points summarising the presentation, and the contact details of the speaker(s).
